

THE HOUSE ALWAYS WINS.
UNTIL IT MISSES THE MAIN EVENT.

THE RAW UFC LATAM OPPORTUNITY JULY 2026

THE MARKET IS ALREADY IN THE ARENA

THE AUDIENCE DOESN'T NEED TO BE CONVINCED. THEY'RE ALREADY WATCHING.

Fight culture naturally lives where tension, risk, pride, momentum, and outcome all collide. UFC has become the premium global language of combat sports, and the LATAM audience is one of its most emotionally charged territories.

UFC Español's 4M+ social audience proves the Spanish-speaking fight market is not niche. It is already gathered, already engaged, and already trained to care about every face-off, weigh-in, interview, walkout, finish, and upset.

Casino brands do not need to manufacture the energy. The energy already exists. The right brand simply enters the moment with the right fighters.

This is not media buying.

THIS IS CULTURAL PROXIMITY.

THE RAW

01 ATTENTION ALREADY BUILT

The audience is gathered before the campaign begins.

02 LATAM CULTURAL HEAT

Spanish-speaking fight fans bring pride, emotion, and identity.

04 CASINO-NATIVE ENERGY

Risk, odds, tension, and outcome are already part of the culture.

03 FIGHT-WEEK MOMENTUM

Every weigh-in, walkout, interview, and finish creates a new hook.

05 RIGHT FIGHTERS, RIGHT TIME

The brand enters before the next viral spike.

UFC LATAM OPPORTUNITY

THE 6.7 MILLION WITNESSES

WE DON'T RENT ATTENTION. WE MOBILIZE AN ARMY.

Most brands buy a linear climb. They pay for predictable impressions. That is boring, and boring does not convert.

You are not buying three separate influencers. You are securing a diversified portfolio of cultural volatility backed by a massive, obsessed, and hyper-engaged collective.

THE LATAM ARSENAL:

ALEXA GRASSO

(THE CROWN):

Champion credibility.
Mexican pride. The face of legacy and mainstream aspiration.

DIEGO LOPES

(THE HEAT):

Explosive rise.
Unmatched momentum.
The fan-favorite the world is discovering in real time.

LAZYBOY

(THE WILDCARD):

Pure edge. The entertainer built for viral clips,
controversial soundbites,
and fight-week noise.

THE STRATEGY:

A single moment changes everything—a knockout, a post-fight speech, a viral weigh-in. The unpredictability is the upside. With this trio, the brand is not betting on one moment; it is buying into multiple possible explosions. When they catch fire, the brand gets carried inside the blast radius.

THE $1.5M MONOPOLY

THE BEST TIME TO OWN THE HYPE IS BEFORE THE CAGE DOOR LOCKS.

This is a two-year lease on LATAM fight culture. It is an early-position opportunity to shape the market angle before future wins and viral moments make this roster untouchable.

THE ARCHITECTURE ($1.5M):

01 — TOTAL OWNERSHIP

Category exclusivity across all three athletes.

02 — DIGITAL DOMINANCE

Instagram feed posts, story sequences, and digital usage rights.

03 — NATIVE INTEGRATION

Apparel placement, training content, and fight-week amplification.

04 — PHYSICAL ASSETS

Signed gloves, memorabilia, and potential VIP/watch-party activations.

THE REALITY:

This is not a sponsorship. It is a cultural takeover. You secure the roster now, before the next highlight reel makes them twice as expensive.

THE NEXT MOVE:

If the house is ready to play, RAW will deploy the full fighter-by-fighter commercial scope, activation map, and approval pathway.

FIGHT FANS REMEMBER WHO WAS THERE BEFORE THE HYPE.
SO DO MARKETS.
